However, the previous version of this rule effective from Sept. 2002 until it was moved in Aug. 2006 to its current section, available in the archives at 4 CSR 250-4.070, is identical, with the exception of the reference to 4 CSR 250-4.030, which was also moved, and provides:

(1) Every partnership, association or corporation must obtain a separate and distinct real estate broker license before transacting business as a broker pursuant to Chapter 339, RSMo. 62. The Second Audit revealed that on two (2) instances, Delay and Executive paid a commission to an unlicensed professional corporation, Jeramie Worley, P.C., in violation of §§ 339.100.2(7) and 339.150.2, RSMo. including but not limited to the following:

- a) On or about April 2, 2010, Executive issued a check to Jeramie Worley, P.C. for $2,710.00; and
- b) On or about February 25, 2010, Executive recorded issuing a check to Jeramie Worley, P.C. for $5,015.00.

63. The conduct of Delay and Executive, individually and collectively, as set forth in this Count I, in permitting Jeramie Worley, P.C., an unlicensed professional corporation, to act as a real estate broker, real estate broker-salesperson, and/or real estate salesperson, and/or to advertise or assume to act as such without a license first procured by the MREC, demonstrates that Delay and Executive, individually and collectively, violated and/or assisted and/or enabled a person to violate Sec. 339.020, RSMo. Rule 20 CSR 2250-4.070(1), which provides cause to discipline the real estate licenses of Delay and Executive pursuant to §§ 339.100.2(15) and (23), RSMo. as cited above.

64. The conduct of Delay and Executive, individually and collectively, as set forth in this Count I, in knowingly employing or engaging Jeramie Worley, P.C. to perform services to Delay for which licensure as a real estate broker or real estate salesperson is required, including permitting Jeramie Worley, P.C. to enter into an agreement on behalf of Executive and/or receive a commission, when Jeramie Worley, P.C. is not licensed to engage in real estate activities, is a violation of Sec. 339.150.2, RSMo. which provides cause to discipline the real estate licenses of Delay and Executive pursuant to §§ 339.100.2(15) and (23), RSMo. as cited above.

65. D. Cause Exists Under Sec. 339.100.2(16), RSMo.

66. Sec. 339.100.2(16), RSMo. Supp. 2011, provides:

2. The commission may cause a complaint to be filed with the administrative hearing commission as provided by the provisions of chapter 621, RSMo. against any person or entity licensed under this chapter or any licensee who has failed to renew or has surrendered his or her individual or entity license for any one or any combination of the following acts:

(16) Committing any act which would otherwise be grounds for the commission to refuse to issue a license under section 339.040;

67. Sec. 339.040, RSMo. provides, in pertinent part:

1. Licenses shall be granted only to persons who present, and corporations, associations, or partnerships whose officers, associates, or partners present, satisfactory proof to the commission that they:

- (1) Are persons of good moral character; and
- (2) Bear a good reputation for honesty, integrity, and fair dealing; and
- (3) Are competent to transact the business of a broker or salesperson in such a manner as to safeguard the interest of the public.

68. The conduct of Delay and Executive, individually and collectively, as alleged in each section of Count I, individually and collectively demonstrates that Delay and Executive (1) lack good moral character; (2) do not bear a good reputation for honesty, integrity, and fair dealing; and/or (3) are not competent to transact the business of a broker or salesperson in such a manner as to safeguard the interest of the public, which are grounds for the MREC to refuse to issue a license under § 339.040.1, RSMo. which provides cause to discipline the real estate licenses of Delay and Executive pursuant to Sec. 339.100.2(16), RSMo.

E. Cause Exists Under Sec. 339.100.2(19), RSMo.

69. Sec. 339.100.2(19), RSMo. provides:

2. The commission may cause a complaint to be filed with the administrative hearing commission as provided by the provisions of chapter 621, RSMo. against any person or entity licensed under this chapter or any licensee who has failed to renew or has surrendered his or her individual or entity license for any one or any combination of the following acts:

71. The conduct of Executive and Delay, individually and collectively, in providing inaccurate owner's statements, constitutes untrustworthy, improper, and/or fraudulent business dealings and/or demonstrates bad faith and/or gross incompetence, which provides cause to discipline the real estate licenses of Executive and Delay pursuant to Sec. 339.100.2(19), RSMo.

72. The conduct of Executive and Delay, individually and collectively, as alleged in each section of Count I, individually and collectively, constitutes untrustworthy, improper, and/or fraudulent business dealings and/or demonstrates bad faith and/or gross incompetence, which provides cause to discipline the real estate licenses of Executive and Delay pursuant to Sec. 339.100.2(19), RSMo.

II.

Joint Agreed Disciplinary Order

Based on the foregoing, the parties mutually agree and stipulate that the following shall constitute the disciplinary order entered by the MREC in this matter under the authority of § 536.060, RSMo. and §§ 621.045.3 and 621.110, RSMo Supp. 2011.

1. Delay's license is on probation. Delay's license as a broker associate is hereby placed on PROBATION for a period of 2 YEARS. The period of probation shall constitute the "disciplinary period." During the disciplinary period, Delay shall be entitled to practice as a broker associate under Chapter 339, RSMo. as amended, provided Delay adheres to all the terms of this agreement.

2. Executive's license is on probation. Executive's license as a real estate association is hereby placed on PROBATION for a period of 2 YEARS. The period of probation shall constitute the "disciplinary period." During the disciplinary period, Executive shall be entitled to practice as a real estate association under Chapter 339, RSMo. as amended, provided Executive adheres to all the terms of this agreement.

3. Terms and conditions of the disciplinary period. The terms and conditions of the disciplinary period are as follows:

A. Delay and Executive agree not to engage in property management for the duration of the disciplinary period.

B. Delay and Executive shall keep the MREC apprised at all times of their current address and telephone number at each place of residence and business. Delay and Executive shall notify the MREC in writing within ten (10) days of any change in this information.

C. Delay and Executive shall timely renew their real estate license(s), timely pay all fees required for license renewal and shall comply with all other requirements necessary to maintain their license(s) in a current and active status. During the disciplinary period, Delay and Executive shall not place their real estate license(s) on inactive status as would otherwise be allowed under 20 CSR 2250-4.040. Alternatively, without violating the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement, Delay and/or Executive may surrender their real estate license(s) by submitting a letter to the MREC and complying with 20 CSR 2250-8.155. If Delay and/or Executive apply for a real estate license after surrender, Delay and/or Executive shall be required to requalify as if an original applicant and the MREC will not be precluded from basing its decision, wholly or partially, on the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and discipline set forth in this Settlement Agreement.

D. Delay and/or Executive shall meet in person with the MREC or its representative at any such time or place as required by the MREC or its designee upon notification from the MREC or its designee. Said meetings will be at the MREC's discretion and may occur periodically during the probation period.

E. Delay and/or Executive shall immediately submit documents showing compliance with the requirements of this settlement agreement to the MREC when requested by the MREC or its designee.

F. During the probationary period, Delay and Executive shall accept and comply with unannounced visits from the MREC's representative to monitor compliance with the terms and conditions of this settlement agreement.

G. Delay and Executive shall comply with all relevant provisions of Chapter 339, RSMo. as amended, all rules and regulations duly promulgated thereunder, all local, state, and federal laws. "State" as used herein includes the State of Missouri and all other states and territories of the United States.

4. Upon the expiration of the disciplinary period, the licenses of Delay and Executive shall be fully restored if all requirements of law have been satisfied; provided, however, that in the event the MREC determines that Delay and/or Executive has violated any term or condition of this Settlement Agreement, the MREC may, in its discretion, after an evidentiary hearing, vacate and set aside the discipline imposed herein and may suspend, revoke or otherwise lawfully discipline Delay's and/or Executive's licenses.

5. No additional discipline shall be imposed by the MREC pursuant to the preceding paragraph of this Settlement Agreement without notice and opportunity for hearing before the MREC as a contested case in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 536, RSMo.

6. This Settlement Agreement does not bind the MREC or restrict the remedies available to it concerning any future violations by Delay and/or Executive of Chapter 339, RSMo. as amended, or the regulations promulgated thereunder, or of the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

7. This Settlement Agreement does not bind the MREC or restrict the remedies available to it concerning facts or conduct not specifically mentioned in this Settlement Agreement that are either now known to the MREC or may be discovered.

8. If any alleged violation of this Settlement Agreement occurred during the disciplinary period, the parties agree that the MREC may choose to conduct a hearing before it either during the disciplinary period, or as soon thereafter as a hearing can be held, to determine whether a violation occurred and, if so, may impose further disciplinary action. Delay and Executive agree and stipulate that the MREC has continuing jurisdiction to hold a hearing to determine if a violation of this Settlement Agreement has occurred.

9. Each party agrees to pay all their own fees and expenses incurred as a result of this case, its litigation, and/or its settlement.

10. The terms of this Settlement Agreement are contractual, legally enforceable, and binding, not merely recital. Except as otherwise contained herein, neither this Settlement Agreement nor any of its provisions may be changed, waived, discharged, or terminated, except by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom the enforcement of the change, waiver, discharge, or termination is sought.

11. The parties to this Settlement Agreement understand that the MREC will maintain this Settlement Agreement as an open record of the MREC as required by Chapters 339, 610, and 324, RSMo. as amended.

12. Delay and Executive, together with their partners, managers, members, heirs, assigns, agents, employees, representatives and attorneys, does hereby waive, release, acquit and forever discharge the MREC, its respective members, employees, agents and attorneys including former members, employees, agents and attorneys, of, or from any liability, claim, actions, causes of action, fees, costs, expenses and compensation, including, but not limited to, any claim for attorney's fees and expenses, whether or not now known or contemplated, including, but not limited to, any claims pursuant to § 536.087, RSMo (as amended), or any claim arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, which now or in the future may be based upon, arise out of, or relate to any of the matters raised in this case or its litigation or from the negotiation or execution of this Settlement Agreement. The parties acknowledge that this paragraph is severable from the remaining portions of the Settlement Agreement in that it survives in perpetuity even in the event that any court or administrative tribunal deems this agreement or any portion thereof void or unenforceable.

13. Delay and Executive understand that they may, either at the time the Settlement Agreement is signed by all parties, or within fifteen days thereafter, submit the agreement to the Administrative Hearing Commission for determination that the facts agreed to by the parties constitute grounds for disciplining Delay's and Executive's licenses. If Delay and/or Executive desire the Administrative Hearing Commission to review this Settlement Agreement, Delay and/or Executive may submit their request to: Administrative Hearing Commission, Truman State Office Building, Room 640, 301 W. High Street, P.O. Box 1557, Jefferson City, Missouri 65102.

14. If Delay and Executive request review, this Settlement Agreement shall become effective on the date the Administrative Hearing Commission issues its order finding that the Settlement Agreement sets forth cause for disciplining Delay's and/or Executive's licenses. If the Administrative Hearing Commission issues an order stating that the Settlement Agreement does not set forth cause for discipline, then the MREC may proceed to seek discipline against Delay and/or Executive as allowed by law. If Delay and Executive do not request review by the Administrative Hearing Commission, then this Settlement Agreement goes into effect 15 days after the document is signed by the Executive Director of the MREC.
